- Consensus Building
- Community Mediation
- Land Use Mediation
- Restorative Justice Approaches to Crime and Crisis
- School-based Mediation
- Training
- Workplace Mediation
- (See ADR-Family for services related to families.)

"I was fortunate to work with Lilly for four years. In addition to her keen understanding about our organization, I am truly impressed with Lilly's background and remarkable skills in conflict resolution. She is wise and compassionate beyond her years. Lilly really has just right amount of balance between guiding you in the right direction and letting you feel empowered to make your own decisions."

Kelly Borchardt, Executive Director, Child Care Resource & Referral of Central Wisconsin, Inc.

Facilitation

People have what it takes to examine opportunities and challenges, create workable solutions, and achieve goals. Professional facilitation supports groups to function at their best, reach consensus, or have a better understanding of differences and how to move forward.

Common Worth can support your organization or business in achieving productive meetings through:

- Interactive and purposeful meeting design for small and large groups
- Promotion of authentic interactions with transparent information exchange
- Team building and training
- Meeting evaluations
- Written meeting summary
